

Medical Prescription

Patient Information:

- Name: Nancy Dew
- Age: 45
- Gender: Female
- Date: 6th July 2024

Symptoms:

- Frequent weakness
- Unconsciousness
- Low blood pressure

Allergies:

- Penicillin Allergy
- Pollen Allergy

Diagnosis:

- Hypotension

Prescribed Medications:

1. Fludrocortisone 0.1 mg tablets
 - Dosage: Take 1 tablet daily in the morning
 - Duration: 2 months
2. Midodrine 2.5 mg tablets
 - Dosage: Take 1 tablet three times a day (morning, afternoon, evening)
 - Duration: 2 months

Additional Recommendations:

- Increase salt intake in the diet
- Drink plenty of fluids, especially water
- Avoid sudden changes in body position (e.g., standing up quickly)
- Wear compression stockings to improve blood circulation

Follow-Up:

- Schedule a follow-up appointment in 1 month to monitor progress and adjust medications if necessary

Doctor's Information:

- Name: Dr. John Smith
- Specialization: General Practitioner
- Contact: +1 (123) 456-7890
- Signature: John